

★ PREPARING THE FIRST AI-NATIVE GENERATION ★

THE AI-READY FAMILY SCORECARD

Can Your Family Thrive in an AI-Driven World?

A 60-SECOND SELF-ASSESSMENT FOR PARENTS

RATE EACH STATEMENT:

3

= Always

2

= Sometimes

1

= Rarely

1. Our family talks openly about technology and AI.

☐☐☐

2. My child regularly asks questions and explores new ideas.

☐☐☐

3. My child creates things more often than they simply consume content.

☐☐☐

4. We discuss whether information online is trustworthy.

☐☐☐

5. My child understands that AI can make mistakes.

☐☐☐

6. Our family has screen-free activities every week.

☐☐☐

7. My child spends meaningful time with friends and family.

☐☐☐

8. We encourage curiosity, not just correct answers.

☐☐☐

9. My child uses technology to create, not only to entertain.

☐☐☐

10. We talk about kindness, responsibility, and ethics online.

☐☐☐

TOTAL SCORE: _____ / 30

Every small step today helps your child thrive tomorrow. ♥

★ YOUR RESULTS ★

25-30

★ AI-Ready Family

Your family is building many of the habits children need to thrive in an AI-driven world.

18-24

🚀 Growing Strong

You're on the right path. A few intentional changes can make a big difference.

10-17

🌱 Room to Grow

This is a great opportunity to strengthen your family's AI literacy habits.

0-9

💡 Start Here

Every family starts somewhere. Small conversations today create big opportunities tomorrow.

READY FOR THE NEXT ADVENTURE?

Let's Explore AI with JOY & Friends!

- 📖 Children's Books
- 🎓 AI Literacy Resources
- 👨👩👦 Family Guides
- 🏫 School Programs

FOLLOW & STAY CONNECTED

Irene Dostov (Miss JOY)
Founder of AI Explorers Academy

“ AI literacy is not about teaching children how to use AI. It is about teaching them how to think, create, question, and stay human. — Miss JOY ”

